I am really glad that I attended the (Circle of Security) class before I had my baby. Now I know that I need to change a lot of things to have a better relationship with my daughter than I did with my own mother.  B.O.

“Angela” moved into Alpha House of Tampa with her six-week-old infant. She took advantage of every opportunity to advance her education, improve her job skills and career prospects, and become the best parent and provider possible.

Since leaving Alpha House, Angela has married, purchased her first home and her daughter is thriving in pre-school. She is enrolled at the University of South Florida and working part-time. Angela continues to give back to Alpha House of Tampa as a volunteer and donor.
